The Caldecott Medal

Awarded annually by the Association for Library Service to
Children, The American
Library Association.

In 1938, the first Caldecott Medal was awarded to the most distinguished American picture book for children published in the United States during the preceding year. The name of Ralph Caldecott, the famous English illustrator, was chosen for the medal because his work best represented the “joyousness of picture books as well as their beauty.”
